To Whom It May Concern:

I am responding to correspondence regarding the filing of the July 31, 2001 to December 31, 2001 Lobbying Report. Please allow this letter to serve as the explanation for that missing report.

I had thought that the information had been filed with both federal offices, including the fact that our relationship with the client, The Business Roundtable, had ended. I was incorrect in that assumption. I have received generic notices advising me of reporting deadlines since the end of 2001, but had believed they were erroneously sent to me because the agency records had not been purged for terminations. Upon receiving the notice that your offices had not received this filing and considered me delinquent, I have contacted both agencies and am filing the requested report with this cover letter.

Please feel free to contact me at the address and telephone listed on the filing with any questions. Thank you for your consideration of this reply and the attached report.

Sincerely,

Arthur J. Arnold
President
