CAPABILITY STATEMENT
PERSONNEL SPECIALIST Sandra Lynn von Loetzen Bennie

I worked with the Federal Government, Department of Justice and Superior Court of D.C. for 17 years. With the U.S. Attorney's Office, Department of Justice, I worked in an Administrative and Supervisory capacity. I was responsible for the Administrative work and Payroll timesheets of approximately 40 personnel. I also worked as the Secretary and Legal Intern for the Chief of the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Felony Division, Department of Justice. I prepared his daily cases for court. Prior to that I was the Legal Intern and Legal Secretary for several U.S. Attorneys in the Department of Justice. I was responsible for preparing their daily cases for court. This included interviewing witnesses; i.e. FBI Agents and Police Officers involved with each case. I also interviewed other special witnesses. We worked again with Homicide cases. I worked for the Assistant to the Assistant Attorney General of Internal Security Division, Department of Justice. I was his Executive Secretary and a Supervisor for the Division Secretaries. I offered my assistance to the individual offices daily to help with priority work. I received an Appointment to work for Judge Alfred Burka, Superior Court of Washington D. C., as his Judicial Secretary and Assistant. I was the Administrator of Chambers and Courtroom Staff. The Judge specialized in Homicide cases. When he retired from the Superior Court, he continued his career until present with the Judicial College. I then received and accepted an Appointment to work for another Superior Court Judge, Judge Paul Mc Ardle, in the same type of position as his Assistant, Judicial Secretary and Administrator of Chambers and Courtroom. He specialized in Civil Litigation cases after working with the Law Firm of Covington and Burling for many years. He is now deceased. For both Judges I managed their daily calendar of cases and court files. I assisted the Government Attorneys, Defendant's Attorneys and their representatives and families on a daily basis. I acted as liaison between the Judge and Newspaper reporters, TV reporters, other Judicial Staff, other Political Offices and the Public daily. I still have reinstatement status with the Federal Government. I was a GS 9 Step 7 when I left. I received merit raises annually. I am still qualified for a GS 9 and above grades with the Federal Government. I received a Top Secret Clearance in 1966 and an AEC in 1977 with the Department of Justice.

I sold advertising for an Advertising company in Rockville, Maryland to Corporate and other Business executives. I was one of their top producers. I then worked with the Neutrogena Corporation, Los Angeles, California for co-op credits and sales experience. I did the Customer Service and traveled to more than 300 stores working directly with the Managers. With the Neutrogena Corporation, I promoted their products to Retail and other Management. I was responsible for increasing sales throughout the Washington Metropolitan area and Baltimore, Maryland. I represented the District Manager and Neutrogena in more than 300 stores and businesses.

I majored in Business in High School. I also took all my academic courses. I received my Diploma in Business. I was proficient in Gregg Shorthand and Typing. I played the Clarinet in the Band throughout Junior and Senior High School. In my senior year, I played Clarinet and I was a Majorette. I was active in all women's sports. I enjoyed all outside sports and activities. I took the Civil Service Exam at the end of my senior year. I was recruited by the Department of Justice. I started as a GS-4 Stenographer and Secretary. I worked full time days and I attended college night courses at P.G. College in Maryland and then NOVA College in Virginia until 1985. I also worked on co-op work-study programs with NOVA. I completed all my academic courses for my Major, Business Administration, and my Minor, Accounting. With the Department of Justice, I took all classes offered by that Agency. With the U.S. Superior Court in Washington, D. C., I took all classes offered by the U. S. Superior Court in Washington, D. C. I was voted Ms. Tax Division; I represented the Tax Division in the Ms. Department of Justice contest. I was then selected as a Runner-up in the Ms. Department of Justice Contest. While working with the Department of Justice, Washington, D. C., I studied Runway Modeling on Saturdays at Barre' Finishing and Modeling School in Washington, D. C. I received a certificate from Barre' Modeling and Finishing School in Washington, D. C. This training has helped me to consult with my employees with reference to proper grooming and dress in their individual positions.

PERSONNEL SPECIALIST Sandra Lynn von Loetzen Bennie

With the University of Virginia, I specialized as a Contract Specialist. I attended the University of Virginia, Merrifield Campus, Falls Church, VA. nights in 1993 and 1994 to study as a Contract Specialist with other Corporate and Government Contracting Specialists while I worked in this position days with my business. We concentrated on learning and applying the FAR and Regulations working with Federal Government contracting. I continued my studies with self training and self learning until present while working with my Consulting and Employment Research and Literary Businesses. In accordance with the OPM Equivalence Sheet which compares GS Grade Level (GS 9 for eight years), experience, and education as well as other training and business experience, working and owning my own business, I have more than a Master's Degree.

In year 2000, I became a Registered Lobbyist for my company to work with issues that may affect my Small Woman Owned Business. My I. D. Number for the U.S. House of Representatives is Reg. No. 35051000; for the U. S. Senate, Reg. No. 5420-12. I am also a member of the Republican Committee. I continued to study and do research for my Consulting and Lobbying issues. I worked with my literary business, Paralegal Writings and Legal Research. I have continued my Company also with my Consulting until present. I worked with a Temporary Agency to start a new Franchise in the Washington, D. C. area. When that business stopped operating because of their Permanent Division and the Recession, I started my own Business and my own franchise in the Washington, D. C. area. I gave up my franchise to receive a TS clearance at the request of the Department of Defense in February of 1991. I continued with my company Staffing Pros. Inc. I received a TS clearance in January of 1992 by the Department of Defense to work in specialized areas. I added World People for International Contracting and Consulting in January of 1995. I received a TS clearance for World People April of 1995 by the Department of Defense to work in specialized areas. I continue to be the only Director and Owner of my Small Woman Owned Companies Staffing Pros. Inc. and World People. I incorporated my Business, Staffing Pros. Inc. and my franchise Temp Force December 10, 1990. I incorporated World People April 7, 1995. I added Sante-Anton Industries which I named after my deceased husband at the same time I incorporated World People. I am the Registered Agent for both Corporations. My companies were incorporated in the State of Virginia and registered in Virginia from 1990 to 2003. I have been registered in the State of Maryland since Year 2003.

My office locations have been on Parkland Court, Falls Church, Virginia where I started and incorporated my company, Staffing Pros. Inc., Seminary Road, Falls Church, Virginia, George Mason Drive, Falls Church, Virginia, 4660 Kenmore Avenue, Suite 1018, Alexandria, Virginia. I continued my office at 1800 Diagonal Road, Suite 600, Alexandria, Virginia, and 601 Madison Street, Alexandria, Virginia. I added an office at 1901 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W. Washington, D. C. to study international contracting. I continued my 601 Madison Street, Suite 200, Alexandria, Virginia until December 2003. I then relocated to 7425 Village Road, Sykesville, MD. #3 until March 2005. I am now working and residing in Montgomery County or Gaithersburg, Maryland since March of 2006. My business plan since 1995 has been to continue my Alexandria, Virginia office with another office in Southern, California.

With my Temporary Business, Staffing Pros. Inc., and my Consulting and Contracting Business, World People, I recruited, interviewed and placed Retired Officers, Military, non-Military and Retired Personnel with my Federal Government and other Defense Contracting clients in the Federal Government. I worked with Family Liaison at the individual Bases to help the families of military personnel find jobs in the Government as well as Private Industry. I recruited, interviewed and placed Retired Officers, Military, non-Military and Retired Personnel with my Federal Government and other Defense Contracting clients in the Federal Government. I worked with Family Liaison at the individual Bases to help the families of military personnel find jobs in the Government as well as Private Industry. I did volunteer work helping disabled students find jobs in the Federal Government. I did other volunteer Consulting for my Client Government Agencies.

I participated for years as a Personnel Recruiter working with and giving Job Fairs at various locations in Maryland and Virginia. I worked with the Retired Military Officers in Alexandria, Virginia with their Job Fairs at the Holiday Inn in Alexandria, Virginia and in Silver Spring, Maryland. I recruited for my company as well as my private and government clients. I participated as a volunteer Personnel Specialist with their Small Business Office. With my Temporary Agency, I was a Member of the Restaurant Association for many years. I worked with my Restaurant clients on a Referral contingency contract. I assisted Restaurant Contractors with their Federal Government as well as other Client contracts. I placed personnel with Retail Corporations. I was the first Temporary Agency to sell temporary personnel to the Headquarters of a Major Drug Store Chain headquartered in Fredericksburg, Virginia. Working directly with their Management in their Headquarters and with their individual stores, I hired and placed their staff in most of the Washington D. C., Maryland including Baltimore and Virginia stores. My excellent work and reputation led to extended and continued requests from this Client's Restaurants as well as other Drug Store Chains. I worked with the Toys' R' Us' chain and the Holiday Santa and Bunny Rabbit Displays in all of the Washington D. C. metropolitan area. I worked with the Virginia private school system on a contingency basis to place permanent bus drivers. I placed warehouse personnel. I placed temporary and permanent personnel with many large and small corporations and associations. I also worked as a Personnel Consultant to recruit and interview on a referral basis for my client companies including real estate companies.

I worked on many contracts since 1990 with my own companies. I placed classified and unclassified personnel in Federal Government Agencies in Washington, D. C. and Virginia, the Executive Office of the White House, Washington, D. C. Department of Agriculture, Alexandria, Virginia and Washington, D. C. Department of Air Force, Virginia and Washington, D. C., Department of Army, Alexandria, Falls Church, Virginia and Bethesda, Maryland. Department of Interior, West Virginia, Washington, D. C. and Virginia. NIH, Bethesda, Maryland, Department of Human Services, Washington, D. C. and Maryland, Department of Justice Marshal's Office, Arlington, Virginia, Department of Justice Bureau of Prisons, Washington, D. C., Department of Energy, Washington, D. C. and Maryland, Department of Transportation, Washington, D. C., Smithsonian Institute, Washington, D. C., National Science Foundation, Washington, D. C. and most of the Federal Government Agencies and Organizations in the Washington D. C. Metropolitan area. I also placed classified and unclassified office support personnel with other Prime Contractors. My personnel on subcontracts worked at the Pentagon with the Department of Air Force and with other Federal Government Agencies in various positions. I worked with Virginia State contracts including the George Mason University contract, Fairfax, Virginia. With the Department of State, I did volunteer consulting work helping Foreign Service families returning to the United States find positions with my company's private industry clients. I worked with Mr. David Ball, an Executive Officer for that Division. With my companies, I placed Assistants, Political Liaison and Executive Office Secretarial staff with the Ambassadors at the State Department. I also placed Labor employees with the Department of State. With my companies, I was responsible for preparing and submitting bids and proposals, verbal and written. I was also responsible for recruiting, training, placement of personnel and customer service. I have recruited, hired and placed hundreds of employees at one time at one job site to complete a job. I had to survey the job site and analyze each individual position. I then submitted my budget for the client employee to work at their client job site. Sometimes, we completed this work in the form of a written proposal; other times verbally.

With my businesses, I have experience and training in the following positions: Consultant, Registered Federal Lobbyist, Customer Service and Sales Manager, Overall Manager, Personnel Specialist, Recruiter, Personnel Consultant, Recruiter, Organizer and Recruiter for Job Fairs, Administrator of Classified and Other Contracts, Contract Specialist, Writer, Lobbyist for my companies, Facility Security Officer, Paralegal, Administrative and Secretarial Supervisor and Trainer.
