Dear Sir or Madam:

I recently received notice that you did not receive my year-end lobbying report for 2000. I thought that I had filed the report electronically, pursuant to a letter that I received from your office in August. I never received any notification that the electronic filing had not gone through. Nevertheless, here is another copy of the year-end lobbying report for 2000, as well as the mid-year report for 2000 since I presume that did not go through either.

Also, my principal place of business is: 1926 Fairfax Street, Denver, Colorado 80220. I maintain access to office and conference room space only at the 1735 Street address, and they do not normally forward mail to me. I just received notices last week.

I hope this clears everything up. Please let me know what else I need to do.

Sincerely,

Ghana R. Kaulius
