16. Specific lobbying issues:

Promoted the need for legislation to modify the Harmonized Tariff Provision (HTS) 9810.00.9000 to remedy an unconstitutional burden on many religions. As currently written, the Customs Tariff does not contain a religiously neutral provision which grants duty free classification to imported religious articles of worship without denominational preference. It thus creates an unconstitutional burden for many religions, despite the fact that the Religious Freedom Restoration Act requires federal statutes be applied in a manner that does not burden any religion.
