Dear Mr. Secretary:

Enclosed please find filings (both past and current) pertaining to clients I represent. I am deeply apologetic for this situation. I thought I had filed these reports, apparently they were never sent or have moved from my previous office. During the move, much of my mail was lost and many of my files are missing. I have tried to reconstruct these reports as thoroughly as possible.

Two of the filings are new registrations for 2002 (Xcel Energy and Public Service Electric and Gas). There are no ID numbers for either. I have also filed mid-year and end of year reports for each.

Another filing involves a name change of the client. The name change on my registration should be changed from New York State Electric and Gas Corp., to Energy East Management Corp. (the holding company).

The other filings are for clients dating back to end of year 2000. Several of these filings contain termination reports.

Again, I am extremely apologetic and embarrassed. If there are other filings that I have missed, please let me know and I will prepare them promptly.

Sincerely,
