To whom it may concern:

Please accept for filing registration and reporting materials submitted by McLarty Internati LLC, dba Kissinger McLarty Associates, in connection with advisory work performed on t of four corporate clients based or incorporated outside the United States.

Although registrant engaged in no lobbying contacts on behalf of these four clients, after re consultation with counsel registrant has now concluded that certain strategic advice it offer these companies requires registration under the FARA, which as you know permits registra for private clients under the Lobbying Disclosure Act.

The four corporate clients are: Telefonos de Mexico (Telmex), Philippine Long Distance Company (PLDT), Global Crossing, Ltd., and Areva, Inc. The filings relate to work perfo for Telmex in 2000-02, for Global Crossing in 2002-03, for PLDT in 2003-04, and for Are 2005. Registrant was not aware until the recent discussions with counsel that its advice to 1 corporate clients required registration, and its failure to file earlier was entirely inadvertent now being corrected. No employees or affiliates of registrant engaged in any lobbying con with US officials in connection with this work.

Registrant is a separate entity from Kissinger Associates, Inc. (KAI), a firm with which it e a strategic alliance and revenue-sharing arrangement. Kissinger Associates as well as regis have adopted long-standing policies against activities requiring registration under the FAR. LDA. Neither Henry Kissinger nor any other employee of Kissinger Associates participate the activities to which the registration occurs, and Kissinger Associates, Inc. is not a party t registration.

The activities for which registration is being made have ended, and termination notices are hereby being filed for each of the four clients. Registrant will adhere to its policy against s work in the future.

Respectfully,

Nelson W. Cunningham
