Analysis and advice regarding the preparation of comments on the following: proposed regulations regarding age discrimination in cash balance pension plans and other age discrimination issues in qualified plans; proposed Treasury regulations under section 204(h) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), relating to the required notice of significant reduction in the rate of future benefit accrual under pension plans; proposed regulations under section 417 of the Internal Revenue Code regarding disclosure of the relative values of optional forms of benefit under defined benefit pension plans; and a Treasury/IRS notice requesting comment on possible administrative guidance that would simplify the law by permitting the elimination of certain optional forms of benefit under defined benefit pension plans.

S. 1971, National Employee Savings and Trust Equity Guarantee, all sections (relating to 401(k) and other retirement plans, including expansion of diversification of employee investments in employer stock, improved disclosure to employees, special provisions relating to teachers retirement plans (sec. 412), investment advice to employees directing investments in 401(k) plans, amendment to provisions governing automatic rollover of cashout distributions, and related matters); S. 1992, Protecting America's Pensions Act, all sections (generally similar subject matter, other than teachers retirement); H.R. 3762, Pension Security Act, all sections (generally similar subject matter); S. 2733, Retirement Security for All Americans, all sections (relating to expansion of retirement coverage by expanding savers credit, providing for universal direct deposit workplace IRAs, small business tax credit for pension contributions for nonhighly paid employees); H.R. 4482, Universal and Portable Pension Act of 2002, all sections (generally similar subject matter); H.R. 5553, Protecting America's Savings Act, all sections; H.R. 5558, Retirement Savings and Security Act of 2002 (to accelerate the increases in contribution limits to retirement plans and to increase the required beginning date for distributions from qualified plans); all sections; S. 2707, Women's Pension Protection Act, a bill to provide comprehensive pension protection for women, section 202 (former spouses treated as surviving spouses in certain cases).

Other legislative issues relating to retirement plans but not directly related to particular provisions of existing bills: treatment of cash balance pension plan conversions; possible means of revitalizing defined benefit pension plans; possible means of expanding pension coverage and vesting; improving portability through retirement plan pooling arrangements; restricting the scope of the retirement plan minimum required distribution requirements; possible changes to the statutory interest rate for pension funding and perhaps for the determination of lump sum distributions; the dividend deduction for employee stock ownership plans.
