RE: Corrected lobbying registration and 2001 year-end report

To whom it may concern:

My initial lobbying registration form was mailed to your office on or before 11/02/01. Because this was not long after the anthrax scare in Washington, DC it now appears that these papers may have been lost, or at least delayed. When I called to clarify your receipt of same, and to get my identification numbers, there was some further delay. Later, your staff provided clarification of some confusion on my part, which has prompted me to fill the enclosed corrections for the public record.

Your staff has been very helpful, even in the midst of these difficult times facing our country. Thank you for your unwavering commitment to serve and for your patience in accepting these revised forms.

Sincerely,

Dorothy D. Rasmussen
