Secretary of the Senate
Office of Public Records

Washington, DC 20510

Dear Sir:

I have been informed that, because the Consuming Industries Trade Action Coalition (CITAC) has no employees, that in fact it there was never a need to register it under the Lobby Disclosure Act. The consultants who provide lobbying services to CITAC have registered on CITAC's behalf and file lobby reports regarding their activities for CITAC.

I was told that I should use the attached filing to terminate CITAC's registration. I have checked the appropriate box, and left other boxes devoid of information as technically we are not required to submit it.

Please let me know if there is anything else I need to do to terminate this registration.

Sincerely,

Laura Baughman
