Office of the Secretary
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510-7116

Dear Sir or Madam,

I have received your letter regarding a report of termination of my affiliation as a lobbyist for General Electric Company which I neglected to file upon completion of my work with the company at the end of 2003. Please see the attached document to complete your files. Since I have moved into semi-retirement from lobbying with my company and the fact that my work with GE had such limited lobbying activity, I somehow forgot to live up to my obligation to

I regret this occurrence and hope that the attached will clear up the matter. I also regret and apologize to you and the members of your office for the added burden and inconvenience.

Sincerely yours,

William J. Andahazy
