March 10,

Secretary of the Senate
Office of Public Records

Dear Madam Secretary,

I am in receipt of your letter dated February 24, 2005, regarding my failure to respond to your prior letter notifying me that I had failed to report a termination report for my then client GE Electric. I wanted you to know that I had indeed complied with your original notice and had responded to both your office and to the Clerk of the House of Representatives by filing the missing report. Please see a copy of my original letter to you (attached) as well as the confirmation card from the Clerk of the House (attached), who had received a similar letter apology and the delinquent lobby report.

Upon retrieving the report from my computer, I see where the report was constructed and should have been sent but apparently it was not. I regret this omission and the inconvenience it has caused you and your staff. I am hoping that my original letter has reached your desk and that this letter is overtaken by that event. If not, the report in question is hereby attached.

I thank you for your understanding and beg you pardon,

With Sincere Respect,

William J. Andahazy

Dear Sir or Madam,

I have received your letter regarding a report of termination of my affiliation as a lobbyist : General Electric Company which I neglected to file upon completion of my work with the company at the end of 2003. Please see the attached document to complete your files. Si have moved into semi-retirement from lobbying with my company and the fact that my wc with GE had such limited lobbying activity, I somehow forgot to live up to my obligation t

I regret this occurrence and hope that the attached will clear up the matter. I also regret an apologize to you and the members of your office for the added burden and inconvenience.

Sincerely yours,

William J. Andahazy
