Dear Sir,

My apologies for being late with this report. The reason is that I am not a full-time lobbyist, and my other duties for the University required me to be out of the country for long periods since last June. In my absence I mistakenly assumed that someone would prepare the forms for me to sign and send to you from Europe. That did not happen, and only your reminder letter prompted me to inquire about this oversight.

Thank you for your patience.

Yours sincerely,

James Leheny
