To Whom It May Concern:

We have received your letters notifying us that you did not receive our original reports. I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused. We did not intentionally omit these reports. We included them along with our other reports that were filed in February of 2004. While we understand that you have no record of receiving them, we contend that we did send them to you.

Please find attached copies from our files of these reports. Should you have any questions do not hesitate to contact me directly. Thank you for your cooperation and again my apologies for any inconvenience this may have caused.

Sincerely,

Rodney Hoppe.
