Dear Sir or Madam:

My sincere apologies for neglecting to file my semi-annual Lobbying Report (Form LD2-Revised).

I have not been an active lobbyist or represented any client before the Congress or the Executive Branch for more than 5 years. I wish to retain my registration for two reasons: 1) eventually I hope to re-enter the profession, and 2) former colleagues frequently call me to discuss the possibility of my helping out on lobbying projects.

I did not file my semi-annual update because I lost sight of it due to the pressure of other business and some health problems. Again, I am sorry to have done so, and will not repeat the mistake.

I have included the report, again reflecting no lobbying activity, for July 1, 1999 to December 31, 1999, as well as reports for the current period, during which there will be no activity.

I hope this restores my registration to good standing.

Thank you very much for your help in this matter. ---

Yours truly,

Christopher Hunton
