In response to your letter of October 28, 1999 requesting a written explanation of the delinquency in filing these reports, this was due to the illness of the undersigned. I am the person in this law firm who is responsible for filing these reports. The filing of the reports "fell through the cracks" on account of my illness and absence from the office. I was diagnosed with a subdural hematoma (blood clot on the brain) and ultimately had brain surgery on August 18, 1999 and again on September 27, 1999. Upon my return to work in October 1999, I was not aware of the delinquency in filing these reports until receipt of your letter of October 28, 1999.

Very truly yours,

Harold Hoffman, General Counsel
