19. Interest of each foreign entity in the specific issues listed on line 16 above.

The interest of the International Underwriting Association (IUA) is similar to that of other large commercial lines insurers and reinsurers. Federal regulation of insurance (including the implementation of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act) is of interest because of the effect it may have upon regulatory compliance throughout the United States. Similarly, as an organization located in a WTO member country, implementation of the WTO financial services agreement may effect its trading position in the United States and elsewhere.
